

Auditory Perception

Auditory Perception
= the way the brain
interprets messages it receives through the ears.

Auditory analysis & synthesis

Auditory closure

Auditory discrimination

Auditory foreground & background discrimination

Auditory memory

Auditory sequential memory

Specific Perceptions

Activity and Video Link

Auditory Discrimination

= the ability to hear and discriminate between differences in what one hears.

Rhythm

Balance

Identify your body parts

Balance on one knee

Match textures

Rhythm and timing

Auditory Foreground/Background

= the ability to focus on one sound or voice in a noisy environment.

Rhythm

Washing dishes

Identify your body parts

Bobby pins and paper

Move the ball on the paper plate

Clap the number

Moving with rhythm

Rhythm and timing

Auditory Analysis and Synthesis

= the ability to break up a sound or word into smaller parts and the ability to put them together again, c-a-t =cat.

Rhythm

Balance

Colour identification and Midline crossing

Body Awareness

Eye-hand coordination

Writing in shaving cream

Move your body to match the pictures

Name your fingers

Identify your body parts

Thread a pattern

Throw and catch

Move ball from left to right

Thread beads

Sort and roll socks

Blow balls

Move balloons with straws

Blow the cups over

Match the shape

Pass the beanbag

Move your body

Pass the ball

Move the ball on the paper plate

Clap the number

Correct position

Match the shapes

Sort cups

Rhythm and timing

Auditory Closure

= the ability to recognise the end of a word that has been heard, for example tea-cher, pen-cil.

Identify your body parts

Auditory Memory

= the ability to remember what the ear has heard.

Move balloons with straws

Match the shape

Sack hopping

Balance on one knee

Sort cups

Following instructions

Rhythm

Balance

Colour identification and Midline crossing

Name your fingers

Thread a pattern

Pincer grasp and paper

Bobby pins and paper

Thread beads

Sort and roll socks

Blow balls